The New York Walking Match. New York, April 29.—The pedestrians at Madison-Square Garden all took more or less sleep after 12 o'c'ock last night, and were all on the track again at an early hour this morning. Fitzgerald gave the greatest evidence of lameness, and was almost unable to walk. Planchot was in good form. Rowell kept up his releutless dog-trot, and kept steadily increasing his lead. He pursued his old tactics of ranging on the heels of somebody. He had been off the track between midnight and noon to-day three hours and thirteen minutes, making one stay of two hours and fifty-three minutes. Day has been taking several long naps, and since midnight he greatest has discovered and proposed to the p [By telegraph to the Dispatch.] stay of two hours and fifty-three minutes. Day has been taking several long naps, and since midnight his disappearances have been frequent. He begins to show signs of fatigue. At noon Herty was the third man, and is beginning to be looked upon as a dangerous antagonist. He shows good staying qualities. The Indian took a great deal of sleep last night, and in consequence fell very far in the rear. Vint was off the track from 11:23 P. M. to 2:17 this morning, and has since been off three other times from fifteen to thirty-five minutes in duration. Burrell, the colored man, showed up in better form to-day, and ran most of the time. The withdrawal of Sullivan from the contest was announced at 5:20 this morning. Campana slept all night. Elson is still doing good work, and his friends say he will show up well later.

his friends say he will show up well later in the contest. The attendance at the garin the contest. The attendance at the garden this morning was fair.

The afternoon passed without any incident worthy of note. Nitaw has been off the track since 12:06 P. M., with only 110 miles to his credit. Herty, Rowell, Noremac, Fitzgerald, and Elson stayed in a bunch for a couple of hours. Plancot, Burrell, and Vint kept together on the track. Rowell has advanced a tride in the bettung, selling at 80 against 100 on the field, although Fitzgerald's admirers the field, although Fitzgerald's admirers are offering even money on him against any e man who can be named. Day sells in the field again and Fitzgerald stands at one against two on the field. Compana had not up to a late hour this evening been on the track since 7 o'clock last evening.

At the request of the owner, I will offer for sale, on the premises, on SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1884.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 1884,
at 5 o'clock P. M., EIGHT BUILDING LOTS, situated on the south line of Broad between Laurel and Pine streets.

Several of said lots front 30 feet each by a depth of 140 feet to an alley 16 feet wide. The corner lot has a front of 40 feet by the depth above mentioned.

We venture to assert that no such opportunity will again be offered this season that will afford purchasers a better chance for investment or speculation than this sale. Far-sighted business-men and capitalists have long since realized the bright future of Broad-street property. As an evidence of the fact, a whole row of houses have recently been toru down for the purpose of building modernized stores.

Do not miss this opportunity, as it may be the last offered this season.
